

Jesus told this story, “Now there was a certain rich man, and he clothed himself in purple and fine linen, making merry every day in splendor. And the rich man also died and was buried. And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham from afar and Lazarus in his bosom. And he called out and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in anguish in this flame. Abraham said...between us and you a great chasm is fixed, so that those wanting to pass from here to you cannot, neither from there to us may any cross over. And he said, Then I ask you, Father, to send him to the house of my father so that he may solemnly testify to [my brothers], lest they also come to this place of torment” (Lk 16). Once the rich man realized what a terrible place he was in, and that there was no relief, he wanted to make sure that no one he knew came to that place.

In Revelation nine we read, “And out of the smoke came forth locusts to the earth, and to them power was given, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was given them that they should not kill them [men], but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. And in those days men will seek death and shall by no means

Jesus told this story, “Now there was a certain rich man, and he clothed himself in purple and fine linen, making merry every day in splendor. And the rich man also died and was buried. And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham from afar and Lazarus in his bosom. And he called out and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in anguish in this flame. Abraham said...between us and you a great chasm is fixed, so that those wanting to pass from here to you cannot, neither from there to us may any cross over. And he said, Then I ask you, Father, to send him to the house of my father so that he may solemnly testify to [my brothers], lest they also come to this place of torment” (Lk 16). Once the rich man realized what a terrible place he was in, and that there was no relief, he wanted to make sure that no one he knew came to that place.

In Revelation nine we read, “And out of the smoke came forth locusts to the earth, and to them power was given, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it was given them that they should not kill them [men], but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. And in those days men will seek death and shall by no means find it; and they will long to die, and death flees from them” (Rev 9:3,5-6). And this is not even hell yet.

Will you consider the seriousness of hell? This is no joke.

“My friends, do not fear those who kill the body and afterwards have nothing more that they can do. But I will show you whom you should fear: fear Him [God] who, after killing, has authority to cast into [hell]; yes, I tell you, fear this one” (Lk 12:4-5). This is such a serious matter. Our need is not simply to fear hell; rather we should fear the Lord God.

Many people think that salvation is simply getting out of hell. Just say a few words, and then you can live however and for whomever you want to. Think about these words Jesus spoke to believers, “Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of the heavens, but he who does the will of My Father who is in the heavens. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, was it not in Your name that we prophesied, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name did many works of power? And then I will declare to them: I never knew you. Depart from Me, you workers of lawlessness” (Mt 7:21-23).

find it; and they will long to die, and death flees from them” (Rev 9:3,5-6). And this is not even hell yet.

Will you consider the seriousness of hell? This is no joke.

“My friends, do not fear those who kill the body and afterwards have nothing more that they can do. But I will show you whom you should fear: fear Him [God] who, after killing, has authority to cast into [hell]; yes, I tell you, fear this one” (Lk 12:4-5). This is such a serious matter. Our need is not simply to fear hell; rather we should fear the Lord God.

Many people think that salvation is simply getting out of hell. Just say a few words, and then you can live however and for whomever you want to. Think about these words Jesus spoke to believers, “Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of the heavens, but he who does the will of My Father who is in the heavens. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, was it not in Your name that we prophesied, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name did many works of power? And then I will declare to them: I never knew you. Depart from Me, you workers of lawlessness” (Mt 7:21-23).