

Jesus came preaching: “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is at hand” (Matthew 4:17). He did not preach: Repent, so you don’t go to hell; or Repent, so you go to heaven. No. He preached: “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is at hand.”

Do you know that there is a kingdom, and a king of that kingdom? The Lord Jesus Christ is the king. It is his kingdom.

You are living your own life. Your schooling is for yourself. Your career is for yourself. Your family, your home, your income is all for yourself. Repent! You must change your mind. Your schooling, your career, your family, your income must all be first and foremost for the kingdom of the heavens. You must put yourself under the authority of the king.

Do not say: “I received the Lord for forgiveness of sins. Now I will live my own life and be a moral person, and God will be pleased.” No. This is really lawlessness (Matthew 7:21-23). This is rebellion against God. Jesus said, “Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. . .” (Matthew 6:33).

“Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven. Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness” (Matthew 7:21-23).
