

In the Old Testament, Abraham dug wells and found living water. He gave each well a name. When he died, those wells were stopped up with sand.

Later, Isaac, Abraham's son, returned to those same wells. He knew the names of the wells, but found only sand to drink. Isaac began to dig again those wells. He too found living water to drink in those same wells (Gen 26:17-22).

In the Old Testament, Abraham dug wells and found living water. He gave each well a name. When he died, those wells were stopped up with sand.

Later, Isaac, Abraham's son, returned to those same wells. He knew the names of the wells, but found only sand to drink. Isaac began to dig again those wells. He too found living water to drink in those same wells (Gen 26:17-22).

You may have heard much or little about the Lord Jesus Christ. You have heard the name of a well, but possibly all you see is sand to drink from it. Is a Christian someone who only knows and accepts many teachings about Jesus? No. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). This is not a teaching to simply accept, but it is a living Christ to experience. To you, perhaps these words of Jesus are just a stopped up well – only sand to drink. Dig the well. When you begin to know the Lord Jesus, you will joyfully declare, "This Jesus really is the way, the truth, and the life. Praise the Lord."

You may have heard much or little about the Lord Jesus Christ. You have heard the name of a well, but possibly all you see is sand to drink from it. Is a Christian someone who only knows and accepts many teachings about Jesus? No. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). This is not a teaching to simply accept, but it is a living Christ to experience. To you, perhaps these words of Jesus are just a stopped up well – only sand to drink. Dig the well. When you begin to know the Lord Jesus, you will joyfully declare, "This Jesus really is the way, the truth, and the life. Praise the Lord."