

Matthew 7:13-8:1 WEB

- (13) “Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it.
(14) How narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.
- (15) “Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves.
(16) By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?
(17) Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit.
(18) A good tree can’t produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit.
(19) Every tree that doesn’t grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.
(20) Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.
(21) Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.
(22) Many will tell me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?’
(23) Then I will tell them, ‘I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.’
- (24) “Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on a rock.
(25) The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn’t fall, for it was founded on the rock.
(26) Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn’t do them will be like a foolish man, who built his house on the sand.
(27) The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell—and great was its fall.”
- (28) It happened, when Jesus had finished saying these things, that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching,
(29) for he taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.
- (1) When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

Luke 6:43-49 WEB

- (43) For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit.
(44) For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don’t gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.
(45) The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.
- (46) “Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do the things which I say?
(47) Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like.
(48) He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock.
(49) But he who hears, and doesn’t do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”
