

Matt 27:50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and yielded up His spirit. 51 And behold, the veil of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken and the rocks were split, 52 And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. 53 And they came out of the tombs after His resurrection and entered into the holy city and appeared to many. 54 Now the centurion and those with him guarding Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the things that happened, became greatly frightened, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. 55 And many women were there looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, 56 Among whom were Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. 57 And when evening fell, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. 58 This man came to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded that it be given to him. 59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean, fine linen cloth. 60 And he laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. And having rolled a great stone in front of the door of the tomb, he went away. 61 And Mary the Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave. 62 On the next day, which is the day after the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we have remembered that while He was still living, that deceiver said, After three days I will arise. 64 Therefore, give orders for the grave to be secured until the third day, lest His disciples come and steal Him away and say to the people, He has been raised from the dead. And the last deception will be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said to them, Take a guard. Go and make the tomb as secure as you know how. 66 And they went and secured the grave, sealing the stone, with the guard being there.

Mk 15: 37 And Jesus let out a loud cry and expired. 38 And the veil of the temple was split in two from top to bottom. 39 And the centurion standing by opposite Him, seeing that He expired in this way, said, Truly this man was the Son of God. 40 And there were also some women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joses, and Salome, 41 Who, when He was in Galilee, followed Him and ministered to Him, as well as many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem. 42 And when evening had fallen, since it was the day of preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph, the honorable member of the Council, from Arimathea, who was also himself awaiting the kingdom of God, came; and gathering courage, he went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marveled that He had already died, and calling to him the centurion, he questioned him whether He had been dead long. 45 And when he found out from the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And Joseph purchased a piece of fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the fine linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which was hewn out of rock and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary the Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where He was laid.

Lk 23: 46 And crying with a loud voice, Jesus said, Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit. And saying this, He expired. 47 Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this man was righteous. 48 And all the crowds who came together at this spectacle, when they beheld the things that happened, returned, beating their breasts. 49 And all those who knew Him, and the women who accompanied Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, observing these things. 50 And behold, there was a man named Joseph, who was a member of the Council, and a good and righteous man 51 (This man had not consented to their counsel and action), from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was expecting the kingdom of God. 52 This man came to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down and wrapped it in a fine linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb hewn in the rock, where no one had ever lain. 54 And it was the day of preparation, and the Sabbath was coming on. 55 And the women who had come together with Him out of Galilee followed after and beheld the tomb and how His body was laid. 56 And they returned and prepared spices and ointment. And on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Jn 19: 30 Then when Jesus had taken the vinegar, He said, It is finished! And He bowed His head and delivered up His spirit. 31 Then the Jews, since it was the day of preparation and so that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath day was a great Sabbath), requested of Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other man who had been crucified with Him. 33 But coming to Jesus, when they saw that He had already died, they did not break His legs; 34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water. 35 And he who has seen this has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he says what is true, that you also may believe. 36 For these things happened that the Scripture might be fulfilled: ``No bone of His shall be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, ``They shall look on Him whom they pierced." 38 And after these things Joseph from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a hidden one for fear of the Jews, requested of Pilate that he might take the body of Jesus away; and Pilate allowed it. He came therefore and took His body away. 39 And Nicodemus, he who had come to Him the first time by night, came also, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes of about a hundred pounds. 40 Therefore they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the custom of the Jews for burying. 41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever yet been laid. 42 Therefore because of the day of preparation for the Jews and because the tomb was near, they laid Jesus there.
