

Matt 12:1 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath through the grainfields. And His disciples became hungry and began to pick ears of grain and eat.

2 But the Pharisees, seeing this, said to Him, Behold, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.

3 But He said to them, Have you not read what David did when he became hungry, and those who were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and they ate the bread of the presence, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, except for the priests only?

5 Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?

6 But I say to you that something greater than the temple is here.

7 But if you knew what this means, "I desire mercy and not sacrifice," you would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.

Mark 2:23 And He passed through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples began to go along, picking the ears of grain.

24 And the Pharisees said to Him, Look! Why are they doing on the Sabbath what is not lawful?

25 And He said to them, Have you never read what David did when he had need and became hungry, he and those with him;

26 How he entered into the house of God during the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the bread of the presence, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests, and he gave also to those who were with him?

27 And He said to them, The Sabbath came into being for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

28 So then the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

Luke 6:1 And one Sabbath He was going through the grainfields, and His disciples were picking and eating the ears of grain, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And some of the Pharisees said, Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?

3 And Jesus answered them and said, Have you not even read this that David did when he became hungry, he and those who were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and taking the bread of the presence, he ate it and gave some to those with him, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests alone?

5 And He said to them, The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.

Matt 12:9 And departing from there, He came into their synagogue.

10 And behold, a man who had a withered hand was there. And they asked Him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? so that they might accuse Him.

11 And He said to them, What man will there be among you who will have one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out?

12 Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! So then it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath.

13 Then He said to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out and it was restored, as sound as the other.

14 But the Pharisees, going out, took counsel against Him as to how they might destroy Him.

15 But Jesus, knowing it, withdrew from there. And many followed Him, and He healed them

Mark 3:1 And He entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.

2 And they were watching Him closely to see if He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise and stand in the midst.

4 And He said to them, Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill? But they remained silent.

5 And looking around at them with anger and being greatly grieved with the hardness of their heart, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand. And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

6 And the Pharisees went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Him as to how they might destroy Him.

7 And Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed; and from Judea

Luke 6:6 And on another Sabbath He entered into the synagogue and taught. And there was a man there, and his right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find reason to accuse Him.

8 But He knew their reasonings and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise and stand in the midst. And he rose up and stood.

9 And Jesus said to them, I ask you, Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy it?

10 And looking around at all of them, He said to him, Stretch out your hand. And he did, and his hand was restored.

11 But they were filled with rage and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.
